

Let's spend time with our kids this Halloween...

talk

With Your Kids About Your Expectations:

- Share tips for safe trick or treating.
- Discuss ways to handle situations that might arise – from pranks to alcohol.
- Pre-plan a route and make sure they stick to it.
- Remind them to be respectful and aware.

care

By Preparing Your Kids. Have Them:

- Go out in a group and only visit homes they know.
- Touch base throughout the night, so you know where they are.
- Carry a fully charged cell phone for emergencies.
- Wear reflective tape on costumes and use a flashlight for extra visibility.

guide

Your Kids Toward Safe Situations:

- Set a curfew. The later it gets, the more likely problems could arise.
- Halloween party? Make sure it has adult supervision by connecting with those parents.
- Be on-call in case they need you.

model

The Behavior You Want to See:

- Host an alcohol-free Halloween activity for teens.
- Remember, kids do what you do, not what you say.

we connect. it matters.

Pelham Halloween Events 2016

THE PELHAM PICTURE HOUSE: FRIDAY NIGHT FRIGHTS: THE SHINING

Friday, October 7 | 9:30pm

Friday Night Frights is a series of teen events hosted by The Pelham Picture House in collaboration with the PACT Youth Leadership Council. The Pelham Picture House will feature classic and modern horror films. At this first event, there will be a blood-red carpet for teens to strut their spooky-stuff and have their picture taken by Deborah Karson. Teens are encouraged to bring along their frightening friends and eerie peers for 4 nights of hair-raising fun!

FALL INTO FALL HARVEST FESTIVAL

Saturday, October 8 | 12 - 4pm

Rain Date: October 9. Come celebrate autumn in the park at the mansion! BPMM is hosting an indoor/outdoor festival of fall delights for all ages. There will be music, crafts, games, a giant hay-bale tower, and seasonal treats including fresh cider from our outdoor press. Meet some birds of prey, help harvest our season's final bounty from our organic vegetable garden, ride in a horse-drawn wagon and pick your own pumpkin from BPMM's pop-up pumpkin patch! Cost: $5 per person, children under 3 free. For more info: <http://www.bartowpellmansionmuseum.org/events/calendar.php>
